

RUN

When I think of you
My heart starts to sing
I forget about everything
Tears in my eyes I no longer see
All I see is you and me

So you better run, run, run I'm dangerous
You better run, run, run I'm in love with you
So run

I'm on fire though I'm not aloud to burn
The flames gets higher and I'm concerned
What's outside this fiery ring
A broken heart or a wedding, ding ding

So you better run, run, run I'm dangerous
You better run, run, run I'm in love with you
So run

I want to kiss your lips at night
I want you to hold me tight
I'll do anything to you
There's so many things to do

So you better run, run, run I'm dangerous
You better run, run, run I'm in love with you
So run
